

North Carolina Statewide Independent Living Council Executive Director Job Announcement:

The ED will direct the Statewide Independent Living Council is based in Raleigh North Carolina

This is a full-time exempt position. We are seeking someone with Bachelor's degree and three to five years of solid leadership experience preferred. A combination of education and relevant work experience may substitute. Preferred experience working within the Nonprofit sector. Knowledge of disability rights and the Independent Living Philosophy, and working knowledge of the Rehabilitation Act as amended and the Americans with Disabilities Act. Personal and professional experience with legislative and rule-making processes, and approaches to self and systems advocacy. Commitment to working with people who have a variety of disabilities, from diverse backgrounds.